

Our World Irish Aid Awards

Is it worthwhile in an overcrowded curriculum?

2013 Winners of Competition

Education for All the World's Children

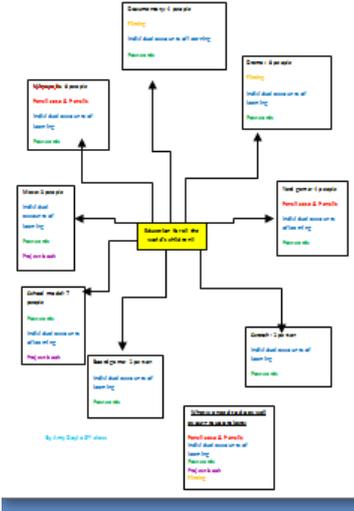

Explore

Choose a topic

Choosing a topic

Create

- Board Game – Bashing Barriers
- PE Game – Home, Field, School
- A Model Maze
- Scratch – a computer game!

Create

- Building a Minecraft Story
- A Model School
- Filming a Drama – Malala
- The Pencil Case– What I have learned from undertaking this project

Engage With Others

- Project Display to whole school
- Filmed a documentary of our project
- Our project Blog
- Postcards to the 189 countries ; why have the goals not been achieved and what will you do about it!
- Letters to Malala Yousafzai

Engage With Others

- Website article
- School Newsletter article
- Local Magazine Panorama article
- Twitter
- Facebook

So what did the children learn?

21st Century Skills

<http://ourworldirishaidawards.ie>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Our World Irish Aid Awards 2014 website. At the top left is the 'Our World IRISH AID AWARDS' logo. In the center is a cartoon giraffe with a thought bubble saying 'Hi!'. At the top right is the 'Irish Aid' logo with the text 'An Roinn Críochtaí, Eachtracha agus Trádáil' and 'Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade'. Below these is a navigation menu with buttons for 'Teachers', 'Kids Zone', 'As Gaeilge', 'Download Centre', 'Regional and National Finals', 'News', and 'Contact Us'. The main content area features the text: 'Irish Aid — Ireland's official overseas aid programme', 'BRING THE WORLD INTO YOUR SCHOOL!', 'Our World Irish Aid Awards 2014', and 'Theme: "A Better Future for All the World's Children"'. There are also small cartoon characters of a boy and a girl on either side of the theme text.