~~ Christmas Fun ~~

Presenter	Presentation
Eoin Carroll eoin.carroll@gmail.com @eoincarroll	It's all fun and games until someone learns something! To increase engagement in my course I have made into a game. The game is played through my Moodle page and students are rewarded for the engagement with experience points and leaderboards.
Adam_Bargroff adam@camara.org @mathletes_ie	Learn Storm LearnStorm is a free All-Ireland maths challenge for primary and secondary students, which was formerly known as MATHletes. 13,000 students took part last year and in 2016 the challenge is more inclusive than ever as it's for maths students between 4th class and 5th year of all abilities! Signups are now open for 2016 at learnstorm.ie and the challenge launches on the 29th January.
Maria O'Sullivan mariaosullivan@sdublincoco.ie @summerbuzz @mariamernagh	Magical Magisto! Magisto is a photo and video sharing app that turns everyday videos and photos into exciting, memorable movies. Chatting about Chatterpix! Take any photo, draw a line to make a mouth, and record your voice. Then share your Pix with friends and family as silly greetings, playful messages, or creative cards.
Patrick Burke patrick.burke@live.ie @patjburke	Using children's literature to promote wellbeing (and literacy!) in the classroom: This presentation will look at how a sense of community and self-esteem can be developed by drawing on high quality children's picturebooks. Ideas for 'filling our bucket', or promoting happiness, will be suggested. 'Tis the season to be jolly!

Teachmeet Ireland is looking for presenters to share ideas, resources and innovative projects for their next meeting in 2016! Are you interested? :-)
