FRIDAY 29TH

Presenter	Presentation
April Cronin aprilmcycronin@gmail.com	Chess Club We have a very successful chess club running in the school and I can talk about how it works. I will have handouts on: how to teach chess to children, where to source equipment, how to run a simple tournament, and how to go further.
Brian Lynch olaoinsigh@gmail.com @olaoinsigh	Student projects using Weebly. Allowing students to complete projects by making websites.
Michael Maher stns.ias@eircom.net	Leading curriculum in the school. This can be shared among all staff and if introduced through curriculum teams, is empowering for the whole school. It also helps to keep curriculum fresh and keeps a balance in the school across all subjects with the focus kept on teaching and learning.
Hilary Mc Bain hilarymcbain@eircom.net	Challenge Groups- Activities for Children with Exceptional Ability
Sé Mc Carthy semccarthyathwire@gmail.com	Empowering Learning This presentation focuses on a pilot project initiated in Rathwire using a skill called Empowering Learning. This uses targeted mindfulness and mental imagery with phenomenal success with children with learning difficulties and with other benefits for the entire school community.
Fiona Farry ffarry1@hotmail.com @ffarry1	GoNoodle Brain Breaks, Exercise, Dance etc. Getting kids moving in the classroom

FRIDAY 29TH

Presenter	Presentation
Simon Lewis simon@carloweducatetogether.ie @simonmlewis	Why My Paper Bin is still Empty at the end of January This presentation tells my story about how our school stopped using paper for Parent Teacher Meetings, Absence Notes and Job Applications saving me hours of administration and possibly a section of a rainforest.
Kathleen Byrne principal@glencullenschool.ie @katzb21 @Glencullen_NS @TeachmeetIRL	Our World Irish Aid Awards In 2013 St. Patrick's NS won this prestigious award out of over 1000 schools. In 2015 we won the unique Award of Distinction for continuing standards of excellence in application. Now it's your turn! How do I get started? What do I do? Is it worthwhile in an overcrowded curriculum? The answer is.....
Brian O Doherty brian@stpatsbray.com	Roots of Empathy Following on from my presentation at last year's Principalmeet, I will talk about how the school is responding to the issue of promoting emotional well-being and will give details of one specific programme which is being offered – Roots of Empathy.
Cormac Cahill cormaccahill@me.com @cosmiccork	Creating Digital Social Stories
Ciara Brennan ciarapbrennan@gmail.com @PrimEdTeacher	Twitter for School Leaders

Teachmeet Ireland are looking for presenters to share ideas, resources and innovative projects for their next meeting in 2016! Are you interested? :-)
